

HR Leave & Time-Off Policy

Sample Internal HR Policy — Effective January 1, 2026

1. Purpose

This policy defines the company's rules for employee leave, approvals, eligibility, and leave balance management. It applies to all regular full-time employees unless a specific employment agreement or local law provides otherwise.

2. Casual Leave

Entitlement: Employees are entitled to 12 days of casual leave per calendar year.

Purpose: Casual leave may be used for personal matters, short-term needs, family commitments, or other situations that do not require medical leave.

Approval: Casual leave requires approval from the employee's reporting manager before the leave begins, except in genuine emergencies.

Carry Forward: Unused casual leave does not carry forward to the following calendar year.

3. Earned Leave

Entitlement: Employees are entitled to 18 days of earned leave per calendar year.

Advance Notice: Employees should submit earned-leave requests at least 5 working days before the planned start date.

Carry Forward: Up to 30 unused earned-leave days may be carried forward to the next year.

4. Sick Leave

Entitlement: Employees are entitled to 12 days of sick leave per calendar year.

Medical Documentation: A medical certificate may be requested for sick leave lasting more than 2 consecutive working days.

Emergency Notification: Employees should notify their manager or HR as soon as reasonably possible when unexpected illness prevents attendance.

5. Leave Eligibility

Employees become eligible for the annual leave entitlements described above after completion of 30 calendar days of employment. Leave balances are prorated for employees joining during the calendar year.

6. Leave Request Process

Employees must submit leave requests through the company's HR system. The request should include the leave type, start date, end date, and reason where required.

A leave request is considered approved only after the designated approver has approved it in the HR system. Employees should not assume approval merely because a request has been submitted.

7. Company Holidays

Company holidays are published separately in the annual holiday calendar. Company holidays falling within an approved leave period are not deducted from the employee's leave balance.

8. Frequently Asked Policy Rules

Question	Policy Answer
How many casual leave days are provided?	12 days per calendar year.
Can casual leave be carried forward?	No.
How much earned leave is provided?	18 days per calendar year.
How much earned leave can be carried forward?	Up to 30 days.
When does leave eligibility begin?	After 30 calendar days of employment.
Who approves casual leave?	The employee's reporting manager.

Note: This document is a fictional sample created for testing an HR Agent/RAG implementation. It is not an actual company policy and should not be used for employment decisions.